

Connect2Learn™ Program

Program Description:

The purpose and objective of the Connect2Learn™ program is to provide computers, educational software, and Internet connectivity to at risk and underprivileged students in America in efforts to reduce the disparaging line of the “Technology Divide” and to help bridge the gap between education and technology.

The objectives and initiatives of this very important program is accomplished by providing free computers, software, and Internet connectivity to students who need assistance in the subjects of math, science, and technology.

Strategic corporate sponsors and donors are the primary source of funding and resources for this program. Individual contributors and donors can also assist by making tax-deductible contributions or by donating usable computer equipment or parts.

Eligibility Requirements:

Students must meet one or more of the following eligibility requirements:

- 1) Students must be referred to the Connect2Learn™ program by a school administrator, teacher, or instructor.
- 2) Students from low to moderate-income households will be given top priority.
- 3) Students must be scoring below the national average in the subjects of math, science or technology.
- 4) Students with learning disabilities will be given top priority.
- 5) Parents of eligible students must commit to participating in their child’s learning experience.
